

House Resolution No. 81

Whereas, it is always a special occasion when the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize a couple who have experienced the good fortune of being blessed with a long, happy, and successful marriage; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baile of Warrensburg, Missouri, will commemorate their Golden Wedding Anniversary on February 10, 2002, during a festive celebration to be held for family and friends at the First Methodist Church; and

Whereas, as they greet those near and dear to them, Charles and Virginia Ann Baile will solemnly pause to reflect upon all that has transpired in their lives since their wedding day fifty years ago; and

Whereas, Charles Clifton Baile and Virginia Ann Fryhoff were united in marriage on February 7, 1952, when they promised themselves to each other through the love in their hearts by exchanging vows at the First Methodist Church; and

Whereas, Charly and Ginger Baile embarked upon their new life together which would eventually be enriched with the boundless love of two daughters, Jobeth Bradbury and Teresa DeWitt; three granddaughters; two step grandsons; and three step granddaughters; and

Whereas, Charly Baile is a longtime farmer who worked as a realtor for thirty years and displayed an extraordinary amount of leadership ability during his past service as Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge and his current tenure as President of the Board at West Central Electric; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Ginger Baile has enjoyed considerable success through endeavor as an entrepreneur and artist who has found the time and energy to fulfill her important role as a charter board member of Survival Adult Abuse and as a charter member of United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church of Warrensburg and Mid-Missouri Artists:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in extending hearty congratulations to Charly and Ginger Baile as they attain the half-century mark in their precious relationship as husband and wife and in wishing them continued happiness in the years that lie ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baile, as a mark of our esteem for them.
